

Supporting the National Library of Israel

The National Library of Israel is the national institution charged with preserving the cultural and intellectual heritage of Israel and the Jewish people and endowing them to future generations. Home to globally significant collections, the Library is currently in the midst of an historic renewal, establishing itself at the forefront of cultural creativity, open access and empowerment through knowledge for all Israelis, the Jewish people and humanity as a whole.

We are pleased to announce that Canadian gifts to the National Library of Israel can be made through the Jerusalem Foundation of Canada in the following ways:
